

EMB pays tribute to outgoing chief, Renato Cruz on his retirement

The Department of Environment and Natural Resources - Environmental Management Bureau (DENR-EMB) led by its OIC-Director William P. Cuñado and Assistant Director Vizmindia A. Osorio pays tribute to the Chief of the Environmental Quality Management Division (EQMD), Renato “Boss Ato” Cruz who just retired from service after 43 years.

Boss Ato started working with then Department of Natural Resources as technical assistant in contractual status. He obtained permanent status as project leader under the Environmental Research Division and worked his way up as chief of the EQMD of the EMB in 2004 up until his retirement. As head of EQMD, he has managed to initiate and sustain the implementation of programs on air and water quality, chemicals and hazardous waste management along with numerous international environmental programs.

We are grateful for and proud of the work you have done for EMB. Congratulations Boss Ato on another milestone in your life. We wish you continued success. Happy Retirement!
